

Cuneo, Italy

Population

agglomeration: 104,083
city: 55,697

Land area

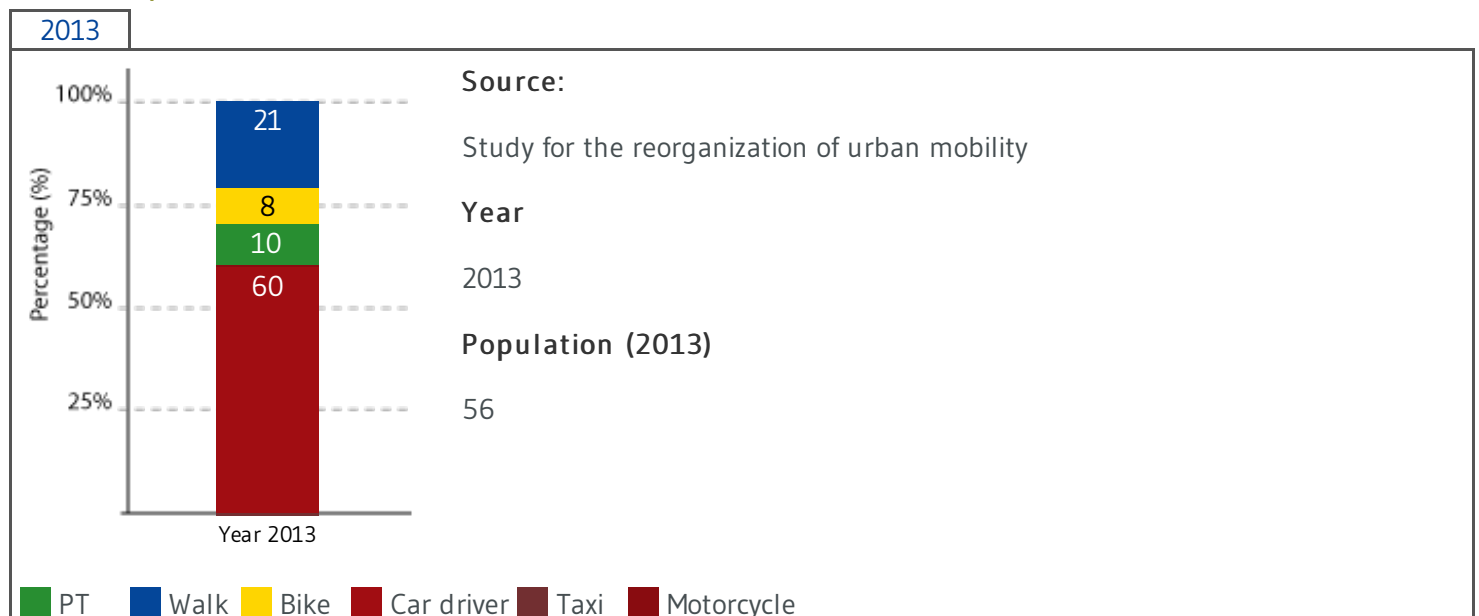

120 km²

Population density

465 inhabitants/km²

Cuneo is surrounded by extraordinary Alpine scenery, at the foot of the Maritime Alps in western Italy. Founded in 1198, Cuneo was a fortified town and it is known as the City of Seven Sieges seeing as over the years the French besieged Cuneo seven times. Today Cuneo is well known for its Renaissance style architecture and 8 km of porticoed streets lined with shops and cafés.

Modal Split

Contact person for Sustainable Urban Mobility Planning

Ing. Marco Piacenza

Telephone: 0039 0171 444513

Email: trasporti@comune.cuneo.it

City website: <http://www.comune.cuneo.gov.it>

Political representative: Avv. Davide Dalmasso , Counceilor for Mobility and Transport

Status of the Sustainable Urban Mobility Plan

The city of Cuneo is drafting up the SUMP to achieve the following objectives: improving the accessibility to the area; ensuring fairness and accessibility of transport; increasing transport safety; promoting the use of sustainable means of transport; improving the quality of the urban environment and ensuring the sustainability of transport.