European Conference on Mobility Management 2017

The next edition of the European Conference on Mobility Management (ECOMM) will take place in Maastricht, the Netherlands. From 31 May - 2 June 2017 to be exact.

The organisation of the conference is in the hands of Maastricht Bereikbaar (Accessible Maastricht), the City of Maastricht, the Province of Limburg, the Dutch Ministry of Infrastructure and the Environment and EPOMM. It is supported by the University of Hasselt and the Breda University of Applied Sciences.

The ECOMM conference is the most important European platform for policy makers, traffic engineers and scientists in the field of mobility. The conference theme in 2017 is "public-private partnership in the field of smart mobility".

Please check our website www.ecomm2017.com for more information. Call for Presentations will start at the beginning of November.
